

Bonifay Kiwanis Club

Scholarship Application for Florida Panhandle Technical College

The Kiwanis Club of Bonifay is a community service organization serving Holmes County through numerous projects and activities. The goals of the club include the development and promotion of altruistic service, citizenship, higher social, business and professional standards, patriotism, education and youth services. In light of these goals and precepts, the Bonifay Kiwanis Club has created a scholarship program that is designed to reward the efforts of, and provide the means for, area youth to continue their education beyond high school.

To learn more about the background of this scholarship fund contact a Kiwanis Club President, Bettie Slay or Kiwanis Scholarship Chairperson, Shirley Owens.

Scholarships valued at $500 to attend Florida Panhandle Technical College are available for Holmes County students.

Please follow the enclosed instructions carefully and submit all materials, as directed to the school guidance counselor , by the Spring 2017 deadline.

ADMINISTRATION

The Florida Panhandle Technical College Foundation Bonifay Kiwanis Club Scholarship was established to help students who graduate from a Holmes County high school and demonstrates financial need to attend a technical college at Florida Panhandle Technical College. The $500 scholarship may be used for tuition, books and educational expenses as determined by the scholarship committee.

The Kiwanis Club Scholarship Committee handles administration of the selection process. The Scholarship Committee has the discretion of recommending as many or as few scholarships as it sees fit each year depending on the amount of funds available, the number of renewals, the quality and number of current applications, and other factors as the committee sees fit. The amount and term (one year or two) of each scholarship will be established annually by the Scholarship Committee based on the same factors mentioned above.

QUESTIONS

Any questions you may have concerning the application process may be directed to your guidance counselor, the Kiwanis Club Scholarship Chairman, or to the current president of the Kiwanis Club.
